

During the month of August the Brunswick County Association of REALTORS® held eight committee meetings, a two-day strategic planning session and the monthly Board of Directors meeting.

The church organization "Freedom Ministries Outreach" has been a tenant of the banquet center for the past month. They have been an excellent customer and are very pleased with the facility for their services. The service is held in the banquet center each Sunday at 10:30 am – 12:00 noon. Wellcare also has been renting the board room for their weekly meetings for the past month.

The Brunswick County Home Builders Association met this month after taking the summer off. They will meet again in October and November.

Three of the four Saturdays in September were booked for weddings receptions. The wedding held here on Labor Day weekend had 320 guests. The other two receptions had approximately 150 attendees.
